"MORAL ISSUE IS PARAMOUNT ONE" ---LYMAN ABBOTT

Lands Roosevelt for His Fight on Graft and Shows Taft's Aid.

Why Bryan Would Interfere With Its Progress.

GREAT DIVINE AND WRITER

In this week's issue of the "Outlook" the Rev. Lyman Abbott declares the "Moral Issue" is paramount in the present national campaign, and says:

The Outlook has asked Mr. Edward M. Shepard to tell its readers why, in his judgment, they should vote for Mr. Bryan, the Democratic candidate; and it asked Mr. James Graham Phelps Stokes to tell them why, in his opinion, they should vote for Mr. Debs, the Socialist candidate, and it hopes to print these articles in following issues. I propose in four articles to tell the readers why, in my opinion, they should vote for Mr. Taft, the Republican candidate. In these articles I shall consider successively:

- The Paramount Issue.
- The Fundamental Issue.
- The Constitutional Issue.
- The Personal Issue.

The moral issue is the paramount issue. The first question for the voter to ask himself is, What can I do to promote honesty in public and private life? This is more important than railway rate regulation, control of the trusts, tariff revision, currency reform, colonial administration, or publicity of campaign finances. These political questions are chiefly important as their solution involves the promotion of public and private honesty. Law cannot make a people honest. But law can, as Mr. Gladstone has pointed out, make virtue easier and vice more difficult. Because I believe the election of Mr. Taft will give an added strength to the partially awakened American conscience, because I believe it will promote public and private honesty and make public and private dishonesty more difficult, I hope to see Mr. Taft elected.

The latter half of the nineteenth century was one of appalling and apparently increasing corruption, both at home and abroad. In Russia it was almost as pestilential as in the era of Rome's profligacy or in that of the Ancient Regime in France. It was not so gross in other European countries; but in England alone was it brought under control and made a diminishing vice. Local causes, so permeated to world conditions, contributed to increase corruption in America. The era following a great war, always characterized by a lowered conscience; the influx of a great army of immigrants, untrained either intellectually or morally for self-government; the sudden enfranchisement of millions of ex-slaves, who had never learned in slavery, Thous shalt not steal; the unprecedented growth in population and in wealth, leading to gambling in all its forms; the experiment of partnerships between the government and the railways, entered into for motives sometimes for patriotism, sometimes of self-interest; the discovery of gold, oil and copper, and the intense struggle for possession which the discoveries incited in unscrupulous men; and the inheritance from a previous half-century of the political motto, "To the victors belong the spoils"—all tended to intensify the forces of greed and to lower the standards of integrity. Public corruption reached its apparent climax during the second administration of President Grant, but the house-cleaning which followed was spasmodic and superficial. What President Garfield might have done but for his tragic death we can only surmise. President Cleveland raised the standard of public morals, but he was better fitted to oppose the encroachments of new dishonesties than to ferret out the old ones. President McKinley was as honest a man as ever sat in the president's chair; but President McKinley's time and energy were all absorbed, first in a vain effort to secure international bimetalism, next to keep the nation from lapsing into a disastrous and dishonest silver monetary system, and lastly to carry to a successful issue the Spanish war.

When, therefore, Mr. Roosevelt succeeded Mr. McKinley in the presidential office, he inherited with that office the results of half a century of growth in commercial and political corruption, partly due to world conditions, partly to local conditions. His ex-

War Scares Wheat Up a Tree.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The Balkan war scare caused a flurry in the wheat pit. It began soaring when the market opened and jumped a cent a bushel and the wildest uprod accompanied it. Local brokers bought millions of bushels and Wall streethouses also bought heavily. The flurry lasted two hours. In the event of war it is expected wheat will rise rapidly.

On Lawlessness in Kentucky.

The Courier-Journal of yesterday said editorially:

"In a dispatch from Hickman there occurs the following statement:

"The authorities are doing nothing, as they know not where to begin."

"Perhaps do not want to begin, but do not know where to begin." If the authorities at Hickman make no effort to prosecute the perpetrators of the Walker massacre it will be plain that there exists no vigorous sentiment among them to see justice done. If a fruitless investigation should be held it would be equally plain that the crime was endorsed by the men whose duty it is to punish the criminals. Everyone of reasonable intelligence who has observed the course of events in Kentucky during the last two years knows that the failure of local officers to apprehend and convict night riders has been due entirely to the absence of determination upon the part of the officers to administer the law, coupled with an absence of a whole-some sentiment upon the part of the majority of the citizens to see it enforced. It is an axiom of the Republican form of government that a community gets as good a brand of government as it deserves. Such an outrage as that perpetrated at Hickman could not occur, and the guilty go unpunished, in any county enjoying a militant sentiment upon the part of a majority of the people, and the law officers, for justice and the execution of the proper penalties for willful murder.

"The officers at Hickman may investigate the crime and ascertain the identity of the criminals—by no means an impossible task where a mob of fifty or more men participated—or they may dodge their duty. But in no event can they escape the odium that attaches to connivance except by proving their willingness to exert themselves to convict members of the mob."

ENGLAND WOULD ANNEX EGYPT SHOULD SERBIA AND AUSTRIA ENGAGE IN FIGHT

Servians Mad With Patriotism and Austria Beleaguering Belgrade—Turkey Fires on Bulgarian Flag.

London, Oct. 9.—The European war cloud is blacker. It is expected that Serbia will declare war on Austria because of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Austrian fleet in the Danube is ready to bombard Belgrade. It is believed the outcome of such a war would be Austria's annexation of Serbia and Bulgaria, and seizure of Macedonia. In the event of war, England is preparing to annex Egypt. England has sent her fleet to Lemnos, indicating that she will support Turkey. She intends to play an important part in the coming trouble. If Serbia and Austria fight it is believed it will involve the whole Balkans.

Servia Enthusiastic.

Belgrade, Oct. 9.—The entire army is ordered to be mobilized Sunday. The whole country is clamoring for war against Austria. A declaration of war is expected soon. The crown prince announced he will lead the army into Bosnia. Montenegro is ready to join against Austria. Owing to the presence of the Austrian fleet in the Danube the capital is being removed to Nish, the second largest city. The greatest enthusiasm accompanied the enlistment of soldiers. Mothers are offering their children to recruiters. Wealthy persons are offering jewels for the war chest.

Hostilities Start.

Vienna, Oct. 9.—It is reported that Turkish forts at Constantinople have fired on vessels carrying the new Bulgarian flag.

R. F. D. Extension

Rural route No. 4 out of the Paducah postoffice will serve 25 more families after November 1, as the postoffice department has granted the local officials an extension. The additional territory that will be covered is the Bowland and Ford road 1 1/2 miles long. The carrier of the route will continue out the Benton road to the Bowland and Ford road and then he will deliver mail to the patrons, when he will return to the Benton road and resume the old route. For some time the residents of the road have tried to get the delivery service and have agreed to keep the road in good repair or Uncle Sam will stop the delivery. The addition of the road will make the rural route 23 miles long. The extension of the route will mean the service of between 100 and 125 persons daily. Postmaster Fisher has had the request before the postoffice department for some time.

COUNCILMEN ARE NOW GETTING PAY FOR COMMITTEES

Finance Committee Votes Itself Three Dollars Per Capita—Sustained

All Standing Committees Paid One Meeting a Month.

MAJOR SMITH OPPOSED TO IT

Some confusion has arisen over the informal manner in which members of the general council voted pay to themselves for attending regular committee meetings. At the last regular meeting of the finance committee it allowed itself $3 per capita for attending, and last night members of the street and ordinance committee claimed attendance at called meetings. It then appeared that the pay was limited to one regular meeting a month. The purpose of this is to secure a quorum. Some members attend regularly and sit around, waiting for late ones, and then often have to adjourn to some time for lack of a quorum. It was originally suggested that pay be granted for attendance, and a fine of an equal amount for non-attendance, and the matter was referred to the city solicitor to draw an ordinance.

However, the rule under which this pay was allowed has no greater foundation than a motion to "refer to the finance committee with power to act." The claims of the finance committee is the only one that has met so far in regular session since the motion to pay members for attending meetings, was "referred with power to act." The members claimed attendance and their claims were approved by the committee and submitted to the boards of the general council, which also approved them.

Mayor Opposes Practice.

Mayor Smith did not approve the practice. When this was learned the mayor and City Solicitor Campbell were asked their opinion. The solicitor thought all such acts should be by ordinance.

Mayor Smith said: "I do not approve the expenditure. The city is already burdened and these boards were elected with full knowledge that no pay was provided for committee meetings. If the members think it right to pay for committee meetings, it would be better to enact an ordinance that will apply to the next council. Then I think an ordinance should cover it by all means. This method is too informal. It has already confused members of the general council themselves, who put in claims for special meetings. An ordinance should specify just how much compensation city officials are to get, I understand the purpose of the practice, and appreciate the motive behind it."

No Money Appropriated.

There is no money appropriated for such extra compensation. There was appropriated $2,400 for the pay of councilmen. Then a committee clerk at $300 was provided for without any appropriation, but it was estimated that absentees from the council, who draw no pay, would forfeit enough to pay the clerk. This new expense, however, will be in addition to that.

This morning the picture "The Signing of the Declaration of Independence" presented to the High school by the Daughters of the Revolution, was hung in the auditorium.

WEATHER.

FAIR.

Fair west, partly cloudy and probably showers east portion tonight and Saturday; probably frost tonight. Highest temperature yesterday, 60; lowest today, 45.

UNION TOBACCO SOCIETY.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—At a meeting at the Louisville hotel Louisville was selected as headquarters for the Union Tobacco society, the $75,000,000 combination of all tobacco raising societies in Kentucky, Indiana, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Ohio, Illinois and Missouri. The meeting will be October 20 to elect officers.

BROOKPORT WANTS HARBOR DREDGED ---AID TO FARMERS

Because the low water in the Ohio river has practically suspended all river navigation, the Brookport Deep Waterways Navigation association has held a meeting and sent a letter to the war department urging that the Paducah-Brookport harbor be dredged. Mr. A. M. J. Todd, secretary of the association, was in Paducah today and he said that Paducah should help by writing to the congressman of this district and urging other prominent men to lend their influence.

At present the farmers of Illinois are unable to market their corn unless it is loaded and shipped by way of Cairo to Paducah, the shipping center for all of the southern Illinois products. The citizens of Brookport have written letters to Congressman P. T. Chapman asking him to use his influence in securing a dredge boat to remove the bars from the channel in the harbor. The transfer boat of the Illinois Central railroad is able to make trips only with great difficulty and at night freight can not be handled across the river. The ferry makes landings only at Brookport, and the farmers residing above Paducah in Illinois have to drive to Brookport in order to reach Paducah by water. Mr. Todd called on several citizens interested in the improvement of the rivers in an effort to have Paducah pull to have immediate aid given by the government in clearing the harbor of dangerous bars. The Brookport citizens are for the stage of nine feet, but want the immediate benefits.

Bryan For Legislature

Mr. W. N. Bryan, of the county, formerly a member of the fiscal court, has announced his candidacy for representative. He is the first candidate to oppose Eugene Graves, the present representative.

Sews Sponge in Him

Omaha, Oct. 9.—Charles R. Chase, of Council Bluffs, has sued two Omaha physicians for $20,000 damages. He claims that during an operation they sewed a sponge and absorbent cotton in him, which it required another operation to remove.

Armstrong's Condition

Friends of Jackson D. Armstrong, the Illinois Central car inspector who tried to commit suicide, are convinced that he is insane. At times he is so violent that several persons are required to hold him still. For safety he has been placed in the padded cell at the Illinois Central hospital. He butts his head against the walls of the cell and tears at the stitches in his throat. When he is calm he talks as rationally as any man. He regrets that he tried to commit the deed, but he fears he will not recover and has conferred with relatives about his business. The wound in his throat has healed but little.

Football Tomorrow

Tomorrow afternoon the football season will begin in Paducah, when the football team of the Marion, Ill., High school and the gridiron heroes of Paducah High school will line up at Wallace park. It will be the first real game between the pigskin chasers since last Thanksgiving day. Marion has held the championship of southern Illinois three years.

High school girls have organized a rollers' club and the student body is ready to help out the blue and white warriors. This week strenuous practice has been put in and the team will show an improvement of 50 per cent since last Saturday's game, when Metropolis was beaten by the decisive score of 17 to 0.

Coach Evans has instilled confidence into the team. High school will line up: Luffenburg, re; Hays, rt; Sells, rg; Harth, c; Ogilvie, lg; Scott, lt; Epperheimer, te; Mercer, lb; Katterjohn, sb; Wilhelm, qb and captain; Burton, fb. Subs are: Brown, lg; Rinkieff, Yarbrough.

GOVERNOR WILLSON ORDERS COLUMBUS COMPANY THERE TO PRESERVE ORDER IN CO.

Fulton County Authorities Deny That There is Any Disorder and Disclaim Effort to Catch Night Riders.

COLUMBUS SOLDIERS IN READINESS TO PROCEED AS SOON AS ORDERS FROM GOVERNOR REACH THEM

Another Victim of Massacre of Negroes by Night Riders Dies From Effect of Wounds.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—Governor Willson has ordered the Columbus company of militia to go to Hickman immediately to repel any attack on the city by night riders and to preserve order. The action was the result of the request of officials, who said affairs are beyond control.

Report From Hickman.

The Hickman Courier today publishes the statement that the killing of the Walker family of negroes took place in Tennessee, but at the sheriff's office it was said that the killing took place four miles from Hickman in Fulton county. No effort has been made to capture the slayers and the officers say it was just neighbors, who desired to rid themselves of the family, although the number of the mob and their masks indicate that the neighborhood covered an extensive area.

It is denied that there is any danger of an attack on Hickman, or that there is any such thing as a night rider in this section.

A message from Columbus says that the order has not yet been received, although the soldiers are ready to go on notice. Rumors from Fulton county have reached Columbus that some officials are uneasy. It is impossible to learn that anybody is active.

Narrow Escape From Death

Little-Cypress, Ky., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—Telephone connection through out northern Marshall county were interfered with at noon today when a large oak tree fell and George Loren, Virgil Hoover and Fayette Harper had a narrow escape from death. The men were cutting a tree and had it leaning away from the telephone wires, but the wind blew it back and it knocked down a telephone pole besides crushing a wagon. The men escaped by jumping. It is thought that the wires will be back by night.

Bryan's Itinerary

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Democratic headquarters announced the itinerary of Bryan's windup of the campaign in New York. He speaks at Madison Square Garden October 26, with Brooklyn, Syracuse and Buffalo following, returning to Chicago October 31. He closes his campaign at Omaha election eve. Kern also will tour New York and New Jersey the last week.

THIEF LOSES HIS CAP, SHOES AND COAT IN FLIGHT

Instead of carrying away a lot of valuables some slick thief lost his shoes, his cap and his overcoat when he tried to rob the grocery store of F. M. Boyd, 412 Madison street, last night. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd reside in the rear of the store and shortly after closing time Mrs. Boyd heard the cash register ring. Suspecting something was wrong, Mr. Boyd searched the store and found an unknown negro crouched behind a box. Mr. Boyd is lame, but he took his crutch and used it in the fellow until he gained an exit from the store.

Mr. Boyd delivered a well directed flick over the negro's head and his cap fell to the floor. The negro ran into the room in the rear and broke out a screen door to escape. This morning his overcoat was found hanging on the back fence. He had removed his shoes behind the box so that he would make no noise in looking for valuables.

It is supposed while a crowd was in the store he secreted himself behind the counter and waited until closing time. The police have examined the cap, coat and shoes and believe that they know the owner.

Walker's Wife Dies.

Hickman, Ky., Oct. 9.—The wife of Dave Walker, shot by the night riders, died and was buried late yesterday afternoon. This makes four members of the family who are dead. There are hopes for the remaining two who were shot. The mother was shot through the stomach, and lived longer than the doctors thought she would. The oldest boy who was missing, and who was at first supposed to be burned and afterward supposed to have been shot, but had gotten away, has been found. He is with relatives in the other end of the county.

Fire Near Paris.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 9. (Special.)—In a fire at Riddles Mills, 8 miles from Paris, two stores and a residence were burned. The loss was $10,000.

Trans-Mississippi Congress.

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—The trans-Mississippi congress is engaged in a fight over the resolution urging the interstate commerce commission to remove restrictions against power companies in national forest reserves. Former Governor Pardee, of California, is opposing that such claims would give companies unlimited rights without recompense. Another fight is over the resolution urging government owned steamship lines from Frisco to South America. Senator Harris, of Galveston, spoke on Galveston as the port.

Hornsby Jury Out

The jury in the Will Hornsby case seems to be hopelessly hung, having been out on the case since 4 o'clock yesterday evening without attempting to report. It will be kept until tomorrow.

SHONTS THINKS WATERWAYS PLAN SHOULD BE URGED

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Theodore Shonts, railway magnate, and John A. Ockerson, of St. Louis, member of the Mississippi river commission, were speakers at the waterways convention. Ockerson described his European tour of the waterways, which developed to the point of great commercial importance. The Mississippi is much superior to European rivers and offers great possibilities for aiding commerce. Shonts warmly supported the lakes to the Gulf waterways and said all railroads favored improved waterways. The volume of freight has increased until the railroads need the assistance of waterways. Although the proposed waterway, he said, would run parallel to the Chicago & Alton, he declared it should be rushed to completion. All the former chief officers were re-elected unanimously.

CHICAGO WINNER NATIONAL LEAGUE

Defeats New York Giants in the Deciding Game.

Record Breaking Crowd at Polo Grounds Witness Great Contest For Honors.

HOW THE GAME WAS PLAYED.

New York, Oct. 9.—"Chicago, 4; New York, 2"—this was the tale in a phrase told at the end of the most decisive baseball game played in this country in many years. A record-breaking crowd swamped the grounds and left many thousands outside long before the game began. The great crowd carried with them to the Polo grounds the pent up enthusiasm, hopes and fears accumulated day by day in the closing weeks of the season's fight for the National league pennant.

At dusk the multitude departed—hushed and disappointed. The pennant does not wave above the skyscrapers tonight. Its winners, who arrived here on the Twentieth Century Limited are now on their way westward. The large black headlines in the newspapers—"New York 2, Chicago 4"—are like mourning captions over a story of some great personage's death.

McGraw Doesn't Feel Bad.
"I do not feel badly about the game," said Manager McGraw after it was over. "We merely lost something we had won before."

Fair or not, this appears to be the view generally obtaining in Greater New York.

The Giants, well though they played, were outplayed. The Chicago team's work was practically perfect. Brilliant, errorless fielding, snappy base-running and opportune hitting in the third inning, which was made effective in scores, double by Chance, won the game. New York could not hit at critical times. Mathewson—"The Great Matty"—favorite of the favorites, could not keep his invincible arm power and the effect of the moment's lapse in that third inning could not be overcome. When the word came: "Play," silence fell over all. The game was on. The players felt the tension—Chicago plainly showed it and Sheppard, facing Mathewson, struck out.

Striking Contrast.
The deafening greeting on this beginning was in striking contrast with the silence as, at the game's end, the home team, out in one, two, three order rushed across the diamond to the club house.

The two great innings of the game were the third and seventh. In the former Chicago made all its runs. In the latter, opening with tremendous enthusiasm, following the loud shout slogan: "The Giants' Seventh"—hopes were renewed, but died after one run, which kept company with that made in the first inning.

Story by Innings.
It was Chicago at the bat for the opening and Sheppard struck out. Evers was out on a fast pop by Herzog to Tenney. Schulte struck out. For New York Tenney was hit with the ball and went to first. Herzog got a base on balls; Bresnahan struck out; Herzog was caught off first; Donlin knocked a two-bagger and Tenney scored. Seymour was given a base on balls. With two men on bases and one run scored, Chance took Pfeister out of the box putting in Brown. Devlin struck out.

Ordered Off Field.
Second—Chicago: Chance singled to right, but was caught off first. Hoffman protested and, persisting in his talk, was ordered off the field. Then Moran, who went to the coaching box, began more talk, and he, too, was ordered from the field. Steinfield and Howard struck out.

Fatal Third.
Third—Tinker's beautiful three-bagger to deep center started the run getting for Chicago. Kling singled to left, Tinker came home amid great cheering. Brown grounded out to Tenney, advancing Kling to second. Sheppard flied to Seymour, who made a spectacular throw holding Kling on second. Evers went to first on Kling. Schulte doubled to left, scoring Kling, and Chance's two-bagger scored Evers and Schulte. Steinfield struck out.

Tenney, for New York, singled to left; Herzog fouled out; Greshnahan singled to left and was forced to second. Seymour flied out.

Howard opened the fourth for Chicago by going out to Tenney. Tinker

An Indigestion Remedy Free

Many people who are otherwise healthy suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia. When you consider that the stomach and allied digestive organs are the most important organs of the body, it would seem that a disorder there is to be taken very seriously.

Dyspepsia cannot eat the things they like; food sours in the stomach; then chronic constipation begins, or, as is often the case, you have been constipated all along, and the stools are forced and irregular.

But there is no use letting indigestion go until it becomes chronic and undermines your health. It is good advice to suggest to you that you go to your drug-store and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. That is what C. Fowler, of Carson City, Mich. did and he is well today. Others who did the same and are cured are A. Fortune, of Grand Junction, Tenn.; B. F. Thompson, of Shenandoah, Ia., who actually considers that it saved his life. You can obtain a 50-cent or $1 bottle of the drug, and, taken according to directions, it will probably be all you need. It is a liquid, acts gently, never grips, and besides the laxative effect, contains exceptional tonic properties which tone the stomach, and that is what is especially needed in indigestion.

All sufferers from indigestion who have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can obtain a free test bottle by writing the doctor. It will be sent direct to your home without any charge. In this way thousands have proven to their own satisfaction Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the very remedy they needed to cure indigestion. When once you use this grand remedy you will throw violent cathartics, tablets, salts, etc., away.

and Kling followed suit. One, two, three for New York.

Fifth—Both sides out in one, two, three order.

The sixth afforded very little variety, though there was nothing unusual in Devlin's being right at the terminus of Schulte's foul fly. Chance started another chill down New York's spine by singling to left and was enthusiastically applauded for being caught stealing second. Steinfield singled; Howard struck out.

Not a New York man reached first base.

Seventh—Three Chicago men went out and New York came up. Devlin singled to left center and McCormick hit safely to right for one base. Bridwell got a base on balls and all sacks were taken. Here was where everybody held his breath. At this critical juncture Doyle was sent in to bat for Mathewson. Great clamor broke forth for it meant that Mathewson would pitch no more in this game. A long hit was needed, but Doyle only sent up a "pop-four" which fell into the clutches of Catcher Kling. Devlin scored on Tenney's fly to Schulte, but Herzog went out.

Wiltse Goes In.
The eighth opened with Wiltse pitching for New York. Sheppard struck out, Evers knocked a double to left; Schulte got to first on Tenney's fumble which allowed Evers to make third; Chance flied out. Evers was caught at the plate. One, two, three again for New York in this inning.

It was three up and three out on each side in the ninth.

It was all over and there was hardly a shout from the immense crowd.

Tenney made the only error in the game.

Doyle batted for Mathewson.

The 1908 pennant is the ninth to be won by the Chicago team since the organization of the National league. By winning this year's championship Chicago obtained the unique distinction of having twice won the leadership of the league for three consecutive years. The first series of victories occurred in 1880-1-2. In 1885-6 the pennant again came to Chicago, but in 1887 the victory went to Detroit. Not until 1906 did Chicago again lead the league, but lost the world championship to the Chicago Americans. Last year Chicago not only won the league championship but won the world's championship in four straight games from Detroit.

out of the game for weeks, and the pitching staff, almost to a man, lost its form. From that time on the struggle to regain the lost ground was unceasing.

The World's Series.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of October 10, the baseball teams of Chicago and Detroit, which have just won the closest recorded contest for the championship of the National and American leagues, will meet at Detroit to enter upon a six days' series of games for the championship of the world. But one game will be played at Detroit (Saturday) before the scene shifts, and Sunday and Monday contests being scheduled for Chicago, while Tuesday and Wednesday games are to be played at Detroit, and the sixth game, if one is necessary, will then be transferred to Chicago to be played Thursday.

The National baseball commission will be in charge, but the immediate control of the games is given to two umpires from each league.

For the National O'Day and Clem were designated by President Pulliam, while President Johnson, of the American, named Sheridan and Connelly.

All rules heretofore adopted and approved by the National and American leagues will apply to the series as well as detail rules adopted by the commission since these games have been provided for.

The following players will be eligible to participate in the games and none others:

Chicago—Brown, Chance, Durbin, Evers, Frazer, Howard, Hoffman, Kling, Kroh, Lundgren, Marshall, Moran, Overall, Pfeister, Ruelbach, Shreckard, Stagle, Schulte, Steinfield, Tinker and Zimmerman.

Detroit—Coughlin, Cobb, Crawford, Downes, Donovan, Jones, Jennings, Killian, Killefer, Mullin, O'Leary, Rossman, Schmidt, Summers, Suggs, Schaefer, Thomas, Willets, Wintee and McElroy.

The official scorers selected by the commission are: A. J. Flanner, of the Sporting News, and Francis C. Richter, of the Sporting Life.

St. Louis Looked On.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 9.—Thousands of baseball fans watched the progress of the New York-Chicago game as the plays were posted on the score board here. The victory of Chicago was widely cheered.

Traffic Blocked.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—Traffic around the newspaper office was blocked by crowds watching the bulletin boards, where the New York Chicago ball game was bulletined. At several places the crowds were so great that men with megaphones were stationed on platforms to tell those on the outer edges of the throng how the game progressed.

The local fans were divided in sentiment in regard to the game, but it seemed from the volume of cheers that greeted the announcement of the result Chicago was a slight favorite.

Two men were killed and many persons injured during the scramble to secure points of vantage from which to view the game, and in the rush into the field when the last New York batter was put out. H. T. McBride, a city fireman, lost his life by falling from an elevated railroad pillar outside the grounds, and an unidentified man either fell or was pushed off the high fence to the right of the main entrance to the grand stand.

Fried Grasshoppers.
Countless millions of grasshoppers have invaded all parts of Maine this year, doing much damage to crops of all kinds. But one man, Orrin Woodbury, philosopher and nature man, of Temple, has discovered a way to beat the hoppers at their own game. No he does not eat 'em alive, but instead nicely fried in batter. Like St. John, who ate locusts and wild honey, Mr. Woodbury, who once lived on a milk diet seven years to change his body and cleanse it, lives for the nonce on "hopper fry." This delectable dish

THEFT OF ELECTRIC CURRENT

KENTUCKY STATUTES RELATIVE THERETO.

Chapter 46.

1202 A. 1. Converting or Interfering With Electric Current.—That any person who, without the consent of any person, firm, copartnership or corporation engaged in the manufacture or distribution of electricity, shall unlawfully convert to his own use, from any wire of such person, firm, co-partnership or corporation any portion of such electric current or electricity, or who shall prevent such current, or any part thereof, from passing through any meter provided for measuring it by such person, firm, co-partnership or corporation, or who shall, in any manner, prevent such meter from correctly registering the current passing through it, or shall aid, in any manner, in the unlawful conversion to his use or the use of another, or any portion of such electric current, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than three months nor exceeding twelve months, or both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the jury trying the case.

2. Injuring Electrical Machinery.—Any person who shall unlawfully and maliciously destroy, injure or otherwise interfere with any meter, pipe, conduit, wire, line, pole, lamp or other apparatus belonging to any person, firm, co-partnership or corporation engaged in manufacturing and selling electricity, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than one year, or both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the jury.

3. Possession of Contrivance to Prevent Correct Registering.—Any person who shall have in his possession any machine, appliance or contrivance, of any character, used or intended to be used to prevent a meter from correctly registering the electric current passing through such meter or for diverting the electric current that should pass through such meter, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the jury.

4. Receiving Benefit of Electricity Wrongfully Obtained.—Any one who shall knowingly accept and receive the use and benefit of a current of electricity diverted as provided for in Section 3 hereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than three months nor more than one year, or both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the jury.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

County Court Clerk.

The Sun is authorized to announce Bram Smedley a candidate for re-election to the office of Clerk of the McCracken County Court subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Daily Thought.

There are but three steps from earth to heaven, or, if you will, from earth to hell—acts, habits, character.
—Butler.

We shall have an opportunity to learn some new geographical names,
if Bulgaria and Turkey actually fight.
Say, do you know where Bulgaria is?

The Ohio Valley Improvement association will not entertain any presidential candidates at its convention,
but it will have some engineers' reports that mean something substantial.

It probably would increase that tranquility of mind necessary to the complete recovery of Harry Thaw, if he knew his wife was looked up somewhere, too.

THE LEAGUE WITH NIGHT RIDERS.

To what Democratic officials and Judges in western Kentucky does the News-Democrat refer as the ones, who have done most to suppress night
riding and bring the outlaws to justice? There are eight thousand night riders in the organization. They walk the streets of all the towns in the dark tobacco district and are known to the majority of the inhabitants.
They boast of their immunity, they defy the law, they threaten those whom they hate. They have destroyed a million dollars worth of property; 300,000 acres of country land are on the market; they have killed law-abiding citizens and whipped scores of men, burned their barns and shot into their homes.

And how many have been punished?

ONE. Out of all those thousands known to the people, known to the Democratic officers in Democratic districts—one poor, miserable devil, who crossed a river and got into another judicial district, was sent to the penitentiary for one year. Not a single man has been convicted in the judicial district in which he resides.

Just that one man has been convicted out of all the hundreds

known to be guilty—and the News-
Democrat boasts of that.

What county officials are doing their duty?

Judge Wells, of Calloway? His term expires this year and he is not a candidate for office. The night riders have a full ticket out for the Democratic primary in Calloway.

County Attorney Krone and County Judge Crumbaugh, of Lyon? They are ostracized. They stood guard over their own homes until the soldiers arrived to protect them. Their county organization is against them. The other county officials are against them.

Who else is against the night riders? Here are two big congressional districts and four judicial districts. Who else?

It is all very well for candidates before the primary in this city, where The Sun single-handed has cultivated an anti-night rider spirit and aroused the citizens, to declare himself on the side of law and order. It is popular here.

But do these same candidates, who talk law and order in Paducah, dare assume the same tone when canvassing in the Birmingham section of Marshall county, or among the night riders on the edge of McCracken, who are just awaiting their opportunity,
with their allies from Graves, Marshall, Calloway, Trigg and Lyon, to swoop down on Paducah and burn
and kill?

Don't be too sure we are safe.
That is what Hopkinsville thought when she took off her guard. Two nights afterwards the town was raided. Remember those wild nights last winter, when our county judge had deputies guarding the telephone and telegraph stations, policemen answered fire alarms and more than one mounted patrol scoured the country?

There are night riders in Marshall,
for they have committed murder;
there are night riders in Hickman, for they have committed murder; for they are night riders in Graves and Calo-way, for they have burned property;
there are night riders in Ballard and Livingston, for they have made violations; there are night riders in Mc-Cracken, for they have sent warnings and scraped plant beds. Have you heard of any of them moving away?

When the candidates go out among these night riders do they talk law and order? The night riders to a man will spot any candidate that lifts his hand against them. Candidates might as well withdraw from the race and take their money back, if they oppose the night rider organization.

A few days ago, a candidate for an office, who is implicated in a raid by two confessions, sought to secure from a reporter for The Sun an affidavit to use in his canvass, and two local candidates before the Democratic primary were along and called on lawyers who are preparing suit.
Democrats Of The First District,
the Democrats of the Blue Grass, who name your state ticket and depend on you to elect it, voted against the ticket last fall to repudiate the state organization's league with murder and arson. You cut your majority from 15,000 down to 7,000, but that was not enough. These scoundrels still think that is all you can cut it.
They think if you can keep the night rider vote at the primary and still hold on to their offices, that is all they need.

Show them that they cannot play fast and loose with murderers and incendiaries and still hold your votes, and then the courts will do something.

If Councilman Al Foreman is as successful in delaying work at the Democratic headquarters as he was in delaying removal of the Standard Oil tanks in the board of councilmen, he suits us. By the bye, is the local Democratic committee trying to Has-kellize us?

A DANGEROUS EXPERIMENT.

The local morning paper says:
"All intelligent voters are aware of the fact that the tariff plank of the Democratic platform is a moderate and conservative declaration to the effect that the party pledges itself to gradual reductions in the schedules as may be necessary to restore the tariff
to a revenue basis, and not one word is said about enacting a tariff in accordance with the principles of free trade."

The best way to study these propositions is to apply them to conditions we understand. We assume that our contemporary and Mr. Bryan are not quite confident that tariff for revenue only will be safe, else they would favor immediate reduction. That would put the merchant, manufacturer and laboring man, the people interested, on notice, and prepare them for the worst at least, which is more than their "gradual reduction" would do. Their hesitancy to stand for free trade proves the insecurity of their pledge. Of course, no explanation is made of how this "gradual reduction" is to be brought about.
We can understand a lady going around each day snipping superfluous shoots from a geranium, but the president of the United States and 452 congressmen doing that to tariff law, is something that deserves an explanation.

Let us see what a gradual reduction would do to a Paducah merchant.
Goods are offered to him at a certain price. The cost of manufacture, including the material and labor, the cost of transportation and the margin of profit make the price. The merchant stocks up. Then the tariff is reduced a little, admitting European made goods that are much cheaper to compete with his American made goods. The price falls correspondingly and the merchant's margin of profits is cut. Another "snip" at the tariff may obliterate his profits, while a competitor who bought after the drop would have the advantage of him.

Merchants, consider the possible
uncertainties of tariff tampering under this "gradual reduction" scheme,
and ask your selves if that is statesmanship.

How would it affect Paducah manufacturers? The greatest item of costs always is labor. European manufacturers with their pauper labor have the advantage of Americans. If the tariff is reduced, the manufacturer, who had made up his stock before hand, would be confronted by a drop in price when European goods came in at a reduced tariff. It would cut his profit. Another "snip" at the tariff might destroy his margin of profits. Maybe merchants fearing this spasmodic, uncertain reduction would cease buying.
The manufacturer then would either have to stock up at the old wage scale and take a chance on losing by tariff reduction or cut wages in anticipation of the reduction, or turn off his men until orders came in.

Here is where labor is affected.
When the manufacturer is compelled to meet this irregular reduction, he is compelled to cut down the chief item of expense—labor.

Labor unions were built up under high-priced prosperous times. It is only when protected industries are able to sustain the price that laboring men are able, through united effort, to secure higher wages. Their higher wages increases their buying capacity, stimulates the demand, encourages invention and keeps the price of farm products at a maximum.
There is nothing else that equals this question to the merchant, the manufacturer, the workman and the farmer. A world-wide panic struck us and caused suffering; but wages stayed up, resumption is gradual and the farmer has profited, save where he has not yet realized on his tobacco and he is holding that for his price.

Let these ask themselves if they want European conditions introduced through a breach in the tariff, especially with the slow torture of the diabolical "gradual reduction."

Only Girl in Ninety Miles.

Miss May Ferrington, now attending the Girl's Collegiate school at Los Angeles, lives a part of each year in her father's great ranch near Crater,

in Mono county, on the border of the Yosemite park, and she is the only girl within a radius of ninety miles.

Hither every summer Uncle Sam

sends a squadron of cavalry to guard

the park, and the khaki-clad scouts have voted this slim little maid the queen of the whole wide countryside.

She has yellow hair cords, buttons and trophies galore. She has a splendid chain of tiny gold nuggets for beads,

and the men of the squadron presented her a uniform of their companies—blue, with yellow cavalry stripes on the jaunty skirt.

Her gentle sway over her soldier

subjects included inspection at stated intervals, when the young commandant by brevet rode her prancing steed

up and down the lines of mounted soldiers.—Los Angeles Times.

WATER NOTICE.

Patrons of the water company are reminded that their rents expired September 30, and this quarter's rent is now due and payable at the office of the company. Those who desire to renew their should do so before it is forgotten, as all premises not paid for on or before October 10 will be shut off.

"The Ishkoodah," the High school paper, will be issued as a commonly paper instead of a monthly.
Edward Mitchell, the business manager, has made arrangements for the change of publication of the paper and the first issue will be out October 15. November 1 the second issue will appear.

Chapter XXVIII.

JOHN ARMITAGE.

UNE roses overflowed the veranda rail of Baron von Marhof's cottage at Storm Springs. The ambassador and his friend
and counsel, Judge Hilton Claiborne, sat in a cool corner with a wicker table between them. The representative of Austria-Hungary shook his glass with an impatience that tickled the ice cheerily.

"He's as obstinate as a mule!"

Judge Claiborne laughed at the baron's vehemence.

"He comes by it honestly. I can imagine his father doing the same thing
under similar circumstances."

"What? This rot about democracy?"

This light tossing away of an honest title, a respectable fortune! My dear sir, there is such a thing as carrying democracy too far!"

"I suppose there is, but he's of age."

He's a grown man. I don't see what you're going to do about it."

"Neither do I. But think what he's putting aside. The boy's clever; he has courage and brains; as we know, he could have position; the home government is under immense obligations to him. A word from me to Vienna and his services to the crown would be acknowledged in the most generous fashion. And with his father's memory and reputation behind him!"

"But the idea of reward doesn't appeal to him. We canvassed that last night."

"There's one thing I haven't dared to ask him—to take his own name, to become Frederick Augustus von Stroebel, even if he doesn't want his father's money or the title. Quite likely he will refuse that too."

"It is possible. Most things seem possible with Armitage."

"It's simply providential that he hasn't become a citizen of your republic. That would have been the last straw."

They rose as Armitage called to them
from a French window near by.

"Good afternoon, gentlemen!"

When two diplomats get their heads together
on a summer afternoon the universe is in danger."

He came toward them, hat-
less, but trailing
a stick that had been the prop of his later convalescence. His blue serge coat, a negligee shirt and dark trousers had been drawn a few days before
from the trunks
brought by Oscar
from the bungal-ow. He was clean shaven for the first time since his illness, and the two men looked at him with a new interest. His deepened temples and lean cheeks and hands told their story, but his step was regaining its old assurance, and his eyes were clear and bright. He thrust the little stick under his arm and stood erect, gazing at the near gardens and then at the hills. The wind tumbled his brown, newly trimmed hair and caught the loose ends of his scarf and whipped them free.

"Sit down. You are getting so much stronger every day that we can't be sure of you long," said the baron.

"You have spoiled me. I am not at all anxious to venture back into the world. These Virginia gardens are a dream world where nothing is really quite true."

"Something must be done about your father's estate soon. It is yours, waiting and ready."

The baron bent toward the young man anxiously.

Armitage shook his head slowly and clasped the stick with both hands and held it across his knees.

"No—no! Please let us not talk of that any more. I could not feel comfortable about it. I have kept my pledge to do something for my country—
something that we may hope pleases him if he knows."

The three were silent for a moment.
A breeze, sweet with pine scent of the hills, swept the valley, taking tribute of the gardens as it passed. The baron was afraid to venture his last request.

"But the name—the honored name of the greatest statesman Austria has known—a name that will endure with the greatest names of Europe—surely you can at least accept that?"

The ambassador's tone was as gravely importunate as though he were begging the cession of a city from a harsh conqueror. Armitage rose and walked the length of the veranda. He had not seen Shirley since that morning when the earth had slipped from under his feet at the bungalow. The Claibornes had been back and forth often between Washington and Storm

He Was Warming Himself.
Last night was too chilly for Henry Burton, colored, and he made him a big fire in the shop yards of the Illinois Central railroad. Patrolman W. M. Smith, of the railroad police, saw the glare and investigated. Burton was reticent and refused to tell where he got a suit of clothes he wore. Thinking him a suspect Patrolman Smith took him to the police station and while he is serving out a fine of $5 and costs the police will investigate his record. The police believe that he stole the suit of clothes.

BEAUTIFUL LIFE

ENDS WHEN MISS MARY OWEN MURRAY PASSES AWAY.

Known and Beloved By Most People in Paducah—Teacher in Public Schools.

News of the death of Miss Mary Owen Murray last night at the family home, 319 Monroe street, caused widespread sorrow today in Paducah, where she has lived all of her life and where her friends are many and strong. She had been critically ill for the last few days and had borne a lingering illness of many months with rare fortitude.

Miss Murray was the eldest daughter of Mrs. Margaret Murray. Her father, the late Judge Frank Murray, was one of the pioneer settlers of Paducah. She was a woman of superior mentality, great strength of character and sweetness of nature. Her heart responded readily to any call of suffering and only those who knew her intimately could gauge her deeds of noble charity. Her home life was an ideal one, as daughter and sister she gave her devoted service for these loved ones gladly and unsparringly.

For a number of years Miss Murray had been prominently connected with the public schools of the city as one of its most valued teachers. She was popular with her pupils and patrons and labored earnestly for the highest good of the city. It was a great grief to her when her failing strength forced her to relinquish her life-work the past winter.

Besides her mother she leaves two sisters, Miss Fannie Murray and Miss Maggie Murray, of this city, and an aunt, Mrs. Samuel Murrell. Among her cousins are Mrs. David Flournoy and Mrs. Guy Martin, of Paducah. She was a devoted and consistent member of the First Christian church and the close of her life here was a beautiful exemplar of the faith she had in the one beyond.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Christian church, and the burial will be in the family lot in Oak Grove cemetery. The Rev. S. B. Moore will preach the funeral. In the selection of pallbearers all of the active pallbearers were selected from among Miss Murray's former students. The pallbearers are: Active—James C. Utterback, Emmett Bagby, Edwin Randall, George Scott, Melvin Wallerstein and Will Wright, Honorary—Richard Rudy, Roy Dawson, Thomas Hall, Eli G. Boone, C. E. Hatfield and Samuel Sugars.

Funeral Notice.

All members of the Golden Cross in the city are requested to attend, without form, the funeral service Saturday afternoon, October 10, of our deceased and much beloved lady, Mary O. Murray, in S. S. S.

The Poet Laureate's Latest.
We invite the attention of our readers to twelve lines of words, some of which rhyme:

When the plover flaps
O'er the idle plow,
And the woodpecker taps
On the rotting bough:

When the starved rook pecks
At the tight-stacked grain,
And the tattered nest
Flecks the leafless lane;

Then, then, will you love
Me, and still no less
When the grass waves above
My dreamlessness?

There are two very remarkable facts about these lines. One is that the New York Independent could have been induced to pay for them. The other is that a poet laureate of England could have written them.—Rochester Post-Express.

The third quarter of 1908 shows a handsome gain in the postoffice receipts over the corresponding quarter of last year, which shows that Uncle Sam's business is on the increase. This quarter, composing the months of June, July and August, shows the receipts $15,384.88, while last year $14,324.75 was taken in, a gain of $1,060.13. Last year the financial depression did not begin until October, and the decrease is to be figured in the receipts of last year. Had an even break been secured this year it would not have been bad, and Postmaster Frank M. Fisher is well pleased with the showing of the Paducah postoffice.

Governor Hughes on Taft as a Reformer.

It is because of his loyalty to high ideals, because of his broad sympathies and his rare equipment in character, ability and experience; because tested in the difficult fields of judicial and administrative work he has proved his quality, his respect for constitutional government, and his capacity intelligently and justly to plan and direct necessary reforms that I most earnestly support the candidacy of William Howard Taft.

His Reasons For Taft.

President McKinley said: "I am sending Taft to the Philippines because he is the broadest and most unselfishly brave man I know, and because he will carry the spirit of the Constitution of the United States in his very blood." Those reasons, which have since been demonstrated, are mine for supporting the same man for president of the United States.

CURES ECZEMA QUICKLY.

New Drug, Poslam, Now Obtainable in Small Quantities.

Since its discovery one year ago the new drug, poslam, has successfully cured thousands of chronic cases of eczema and other distressing skin afflictions. Heretofore poslam has been dispensed solely for the benefit of eczema patients in large jars sufficient for a month's treatment. This was found to be an inconvenience to many thousands who use it for minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly feet, piles, etc., which require but a small quantity to cure. To overcome this, and in response to urgent appeals, the dispensers of poslam have been obliged to adopt, in addition to the regular two-dollar package, a special fifty-cent size, which in future may be found at Gilbert's and other leading drug stores in Paducah, or may be ordered direct from the Emergency Laboratories, No. 22 West 25th street, New York City. In all eczema cases poslam stops itching with first application, and proceeds to heal immediately; chronic cases being cured in two weeks. In less serious skin troubles, results are seen after an overnight application.

Samples for experimental purposes may still be had, free of charge, by writing to the laboratories for them.

A Puzzle in Spelling.

According to a Tennessee man there was once a judge in the eastern section of that state, a man well versed in law, but entirely self-educated, who had to contend with the principles of orthography all his life. In early life he had lived in Knoxville, and for a long time he insisted upon spelling the name Knoxville.

Finally his friends educated him up to the point of adding the K; so thoroughly, in fact, was the lesson learned that when, a few years afterward, he removed to Nashville, nothing could prevent him from spelling it Knoxville.

Then, some time later, the judge moved again, this time to Murfreesboro. On the day that he began to write his first letter from this place he scratched his head in perplexity, and finally exclaimed:

"I give it up! How on earth can they spell the name of this place with a K?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

You can believe every word an honest gambler tells you—but the difficulty lies in finding one.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed color and form. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

City Solicitor Instructed By Aldermen
to Take Up Elliott Matter for Adjustment at Once.

STREET WORK LACKS FUNDS

City Solicitor Campbell was instructed at last night's aldermen meeting to notify Mr. A. S. Elliott to move a small house located at Ninth and Ohio streets off the city's property. If he does not move the house off the city property condemnation proceedings will be brought and he will be compelled to move his property. The house belonging to Mr. Elliott at Ninth and Ohio streets projects over the sidewalk 14 inches. Back taxes on this same property were ordered collected and pay for the improvements done in the last year put down by the city. For four years this property has not been assessed for taxation and a deed was not made out until a month ago. The property was purchased from the city for $135 and has been renting out for four years at $298 per year, it was stated. The city improved that street and put down a concrete sidewalk and concrete curb and gutter. Mr. Elliott objected and said the property was not worth the expense of the improvement and the question was referred to the finance committee. The committee reported back to the board that Mr. Elliott should pay for all the improvements and the board added that he should move off the street and pay the back taxes.

The Standard Oil ordinance, regulating the storage of oil in the city limits, was referred to the city solicitor. Alderman Miller made the motion to kill the ordinance that was presented for passage but the motion was lost on the vote of 5 to 3.

Street Work Deferred.

The ordinance, providing for the construction of Fourteenth street from Burnett street to Oak Grove cemetery by grading and graveling, was killed, because there is no money in the treasurer for doing the work. The ordinance had been given two passages in the lower board. Action was deferred on the ordinance, providing for sidewalks on both sides of Fourth street from Broad street to Meyers street, and on Meyers street to Farley Place from the bridge, because of no money.

The motion of Councilman Van Meter to have the city go ahead with the work of improving the roads on the levee by making a 29-foot gravel drive from Broadway to the upper stage of the wharfbank and from the foot of Kentucky avenue to the lower stage of the wharfbank, was killed. No money to do the work was the reason. This improvement was ordered done a year ago. The vote was 5 nays and 3 yeas.

The petition at the regular election for a vote of the citizens of Paducah on a bond issue for the purchase of the Paducah Water company or for installing a municipal water plant and power house, was received and filed and referred to the ordinance committee and the light and water committee.

Mr. Eli G. Boone was present and spoke in behalf of the Woman's club. He asked that the Woman's club be given a consideration. The club thinks that $4,600 is too much for the assessed valuation of the club house for taxation and they ask that a nominal value be placed on the building. The club is just getting a good start in this city and is doing some good work and trying to cut down expenses as much as possible.

On motion of Alderman Hank the question of assessing the Woman's club building for taxation was referred to the board of supervisors.

Alderman Wells reported that the two drinking fountains the city ordered are set up, one at the scale yard, Tenth and Jackson streets, and the other at Caldwell park, Fourteenth and Trimble streets.

The water company reported the water mains that the city ordered on the Mayfield road from Guthrie avenue, extending 400 feet, and on Harrison street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, with two fire plugs, were put in. The report was received and filed and the plugs placed on the rental list.

The Ohio Valley Improvement association was granted $200, the money to be paid out of the contingent fund. Mr. B. F. Sears was granted a deed to lot 16, block 44, in Oak Grove cemetery.

The report of the city treasurer and city auditor for September was received and filed. The report of the finance committee, showing accounts for $12,469.84, was received and filed and ordered paid. The reports of Dollar a Year Mayor.

Timpson, Texas, has a mayor whose salary is $1 a year, and the Paragraphers' union is having all kinds of alleged fun with him. The mayor is a true patriot, even if he is not aware of the fact. He is setting the 2,000 inhabitants of his town for one-twentieth of a cent a year each—certainly, not a munificent salary. And, from current reports, he is a good mayor, who attends to his duties—at one per.

Of course there is a reason why the unnamed mayor has come up to and perchance above expectations. An ordinary mortal would never have made good. A Rockefeller would have failed; so would a Roosevelt or a Bryan. There is a simple explanation of the Timpson mayor's greatness—he is an editor. And any man who can run a daily paper in a Texas town of 2,000, can live as mayor on a salary of $1 a year.

But let the Timpson man beware lest his fame reach the capacious ears of Willie Hearst, for tempted by salary, if not the honor, Hearst may esteem it a duty to a long suffering people to run for mayor of Timpson. And Kipling and the Widow.

"Rudyard Kipling, when he dined with me," said a literary Chicagoan, "told me about Simla."

"It seems that Simla is up in the mountains—the hills, as they say in India—and the ladies go there in the hot weather to escape the heat of the low country."

"Well, Kipling said that one lovely cool morning at Simla, he was present to a 'grass-widow.' They call those ladies 'grass-widows' whose husbands are detained by work in the hot cities of the plains.

"She was awfully pretty and charming, and as they talked together in the pleasant coolness Kipling said:

"I suppose you can't help thinking of your poor husband grilling down below?"

"The lady gave him a strange look, and he learned afterward that she was a real widow."—New York Times.

LaFrance SHOE FOR WOMEN

SOLE REASON—AND OTHERS

The reason LaFrance shoes for women are comfortable is that they are made that way. If you had a pair of shoes which were full of ridges of superior leather, you know they would hurt you and look badly—but that is the way many shoes are made.

In LaFrance Shoes the seams are even and smooth like those of a glove, and there are no inside ridges of leather to hurt or chafe your feet.

Therefore, they have a comfortable, glove-like feeling, and for the same reason they fit beautifully and always present—whether new or old—a neat, graceful and beautiful appearance.

BRYAN'S OWN STATE IN LINE FOR TAFT

Governor Hughes of New York is Confident.

Senator Hemenway Says Indiana is Good for 25,000 Republican Majority.

THE OKLAHOMA REPUBLICANS

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 9.—After having spoken in four teen towns, all within a radius of a few hundred miles of the home of the Democratic candidate for president, Gov. Charles E. Hughes, of New York, in a speech here, declared he was convinced that "the voice of Bryan's own country would not be the weakest in repudiating the Bryan policies and reaffirming the Republican policies next month."

At Lincoln Governor Hughes was escorted through the streets by Gov. George L. Sheldon, of Nebraska, in an automobile decorated with a large placard bearing the words, "Hughes 1912—Sheldon 1916."

Enthusiastic crowds greeted the New York governor when he spoke from the train at Ashland, York and other stops. The yells of cowboys and the music of a brass band from a "Wild West" show joined in the tumult of greeting at Grand Island. The public schools at Kearney were dismissed to allow the pupils to hear the governor. At Hastings Governor Hughes reached the extreme western point of his tour. In his address there Governor Hughes said:

"None of Mr. Bryan's new schemes have been tried and I feel sure that if you analyzed them and imagined them for a moment to be in working order you would not wish them to be tried. We want no experiments that might throw the American republic into the hands of a receiver. We want to cure abuses, but we can not climb high unless we keep a steady head. We can not effect reforms by the visions of a night. We must eradicate evils without threatening our prosperity and institute progressive ideals without resort to fanciful programs. Having met all classes of people in this state I am convinced that Nebraska is going to vote for continued progress."

"We have as the Republican candidate one whose ability has been tried. He went to the Philippines and settled amicably and without ostentation a difficult problem. His every move has been dictated by a desire to do justice to all. He comes to you now free from proposals gotten up to please the popular fancy, an honest, able man, on whose career not a blemish can be found."

Speaks in St. Joseph Today.
St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 9.—Gov. Charles E. Hughes, of New York, will arrive in St. Joseph at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning from Grand Island, Neb., and will be given a big reception by natives of the Empire state as a prelude to a speech he is to deliver at the Tootle opera house. Every seat on the stage is to be occupied by a New Yorker. From this point a special train is to be taken for Topeka, Wichita and the southwest.

Democratic leaders are apprehensive over the result of the visit of Taft and Hughes in Northwest Missouri. They hope for an offset in Bryan's visit. The Democratic candidate for president is scheduled to arrive in this city at 8 o'clock Saturday night. He will come by way of Kansas City, and he is billed for a brief speech at Weston, Platte county.

M. A. Reed, Republican nominee for congress, will open his campaign in Buchanan county tomorrow. He and Judge Selden P. Spencer, of St. Louis, will address an audience at De Kalb in the afternoon, and they will address a rally at the Lincoln club in St. Joseph tomorrow night.

This Greatest Clothing Sale

INDEED, this sale has been in full blast from the first day. Men, and women, too, saw and grasped the wonderful opportunities which the sale offered in the way of prices. Price, Loeb & Co., of Cincinnati, big clothing manufacturers of that city, deciding to retire from business, sold us their entire stock of splendidly tailored men's, young men's and boys' clothing at ridiculous prices and we passed them on to you at the same big savings, adding a part of our own stock for good measure. If you haven't attended the sale yet, don't fail to do so before it closes. See how many dollars you can save when compared to the extravagant Broadway prices where high rents prevail. Prices talk. Read these.

Men's Fine Suits at Less Than Cost

Finest specimens of tailoring in nobby cassimeres, chevrons and worsteds, new broad shoulder effect, hand-felled collars, newest shades of brown, gray and olive, single and double-breasted, all sizes. Regular prices from $5.00 to $25.00. Sale prices

WILL UNVEIL TWO MONUMENTS SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Mrs. Lillian Pryor and Sov. Vatis Houser Died During the Year—The Services.

The Woodmen of the World and the Woodmen Circles of Paducah will unveil the monuments erected in Oak Grove cemetery during the last year in honor of their deceased members, Sunday afternoon. The deceased members are Mrs. Lillian Pryor, of the Evergreen Circle, and Mr. Vatis Houser, of Jersey camp. The Woodmen will leave their hall at Third and Elizabeth streets at 1:30 o'clock headed by Deal's band and will march to Oak Grove cemetery.

After the monuments have been unveiled Sovereign David Gregory, of Mayfield; Sovereign A. W. Barkley and Sovereign E. H. Puryear will deliver addresses. The unveiling exercises will begin at 3 o'clock.

One of Bill Nye's

Referring to a real estate transaction made by one Peter Minuit, way back in the year 1628, Bill Nye, in his history of the United States, declared:

"New York was afterwards sold for $24; the whole island. When I think of this I go into my family gallery, which I also use as a swear room, and tell those ancestors what I think of them. Where were they when New York sold for $24?"

The humor of this strikes deeply when one stops to consider what has been the outcome of this original investment. Peter Minuit, with trinkets and a few bottles of rum, so delighted the native Indians that they gladly turned over to him the whole of Manhattan Island, now the heart of Greater New York—New York, the Giant City.—National Magazine.

"I built my new suburban cottage on a bluff." "Wat is it called?" "It wasn't called at all. Tat's why I built the cottage."—Baltimore American.

The New Wood Yard is Ready For Business.

We have our portable wood sawing machine in operation and are now prepared to furnish any amount of oak stove and heating wood (good country wood). We are cutting it 12 to 16 inches long, but will cut special lengths to suit customers.

We opened a wood yard in connection with our coal business in order to furnish our men steady employment, as every man given employment at this time helps improve business conditions and hastens the return of prosperity.

Then Paducah needs a first-class wood yard, and if the people will patronize us we will guarantee them an up-to-date yard, where they can get oak stove and heating wood any time during the year. We will also have loose and bundled kindling and will be in position to furnish mixed loads—part wood and part kindling. It is not our desire or intention to ruin or take away from any person running a wood wagon their business, but will endeavor to make their business more secure by selling their wood at our yard to fill their orders.

We have the wood to sell and will deliver it to you or you can send a wagon to our yard for it. It is not necessary now for you to purchase a large quantity at a time, as you can buy one load at a time from us and depend on getting it when you want it.

SPEAKING OF ISSUES.

"ON TO CAIRO" FROM PITTSBURG

After Chicago Then Comes Louisville.

This Convention Will Be Most Important
Ever Held for Ohio River—One Thousand Delegates.

BACKED BY THE ENGINEERS

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 9.—One of the chief topics to be discussed at the fourteenth annual convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement association which will be held in Louisville, October 22 and 23, will be the effect of river improvement on transportation rates generally and on increasing the facilities which will thus be afforded the commerce of the country. It has come to be conceded everywhere that with business at a normal stage the railroads are inadequate to take care of it, and that for that reason if for no other the rivers should be improved to a point where they would be constantly available as transportation lines. When a nine-foot stage is secured for the Ohio, as now seems to be probable in the immediate future, the railroads will have a tremendous assistant. Railroad men themselves welcome the prospects of such aid. The effect of the river transportation will also be to reduce or at least to regulate freight rates, and such an effect will benefit not merely the cities along the river, but the whole surrounding territory.

The convention will have six sessions in two days on which it will be in Louisville, and there will be business for the delegates all the time. The entertainment committee of Louisville business men is making an effort to provide some interesting features, however, and one of these will be a trip to the falls of the Ohio, where the chief improvement work undertaken by the government is now being carried on. If the river does not rise much between now and the convention, it will be possible to study at close range all the details of the construction of the dams, which are now nearing completion.

A supplementary call for the convention has been sent out by President John L. Vance, of Columbus, O., and Secretary J. P. Ellison, of Cincinnati. In the call it is declared that the convention will be the most important one ever held by the association, because it will for the first time have behind it the recommendations of two boards of United States engineers which have advocated the establishment of a nine-foot stage the year round, and with their aid it is hoped that the efforts of the association to secure a sufficient appropriation from congress at its next session to begin the work on a proper basis will be successful.

It is expected that between 750 and 1,000 delegates will attend.

The Reuben Dunbar arrived this morning from Riverton, Ala., and all way landings with a large cargo of lumber. She made a short landing at the wharfbank and then went to Brookport to unload lumber. The Dunbar will return tonight and receive freight at the wharf until tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock when she will leave for Riverton and all way landings.

The George Cowling made her two regular trips from Metropolis here and return today with a good passenger and freight business.

Captain James Brown, of Jopka, came to Paducah last night and this morning he took the Mary Anderson to Mound City to pull the towboat Condor and a tow of barges off the ground. The Condor and her tow have been aground for a week at Mound City.

The steamer Kentucky was dropped down to the wharf yesterday and was inspected by Steamboat Inspectors Green and St. John, of Nashville. The Kentucky passed a first-class inspection and this morning she was taken up the Tennessee and tied up with the Clyde and the Saltillo. Will Leek, engineer on the Mariner, was in the city last night and this
